

8. CODE OF CONDUCT

1. This Code of Conduct for BC05 applies to members of the Mid-Island and Pacific Rim Branch Executive and of Branch Committee members. The Code of Conduct provides a formal statement of the policies and principles of conduct for Branch members that occupy positions defined by Branch BC05.

2. All committee members are expected to be aware of, and comply with, the Code of Conduct and its related policies. A formal statement of awareness must be signed upon election or appointment to Branch committees.

3. The Code of Conduct provides a framework of principles for conducting business and dealing with customers, colleagues and other stakeholders which are:

- to act with integrity and professionalism.
- be scrupulous in the proper use of Association information, funds, equipment, facilities, and other assets.
- to exercise fairness, equity, courtesy, and sensitivity in dealing with members, each other, and other stakeholders; and
- to avoid conflict of interests or the appearance of a conflict of interest.
